

SUNDAY IN FACE-TO-FACE DENUNCIATION OF DEVIL

Evangelist Stirs Big Paterson Audience With Dramatic Castigation.

ADDRESSES SCHOOL CHILDREN

Gives Them Lots of Wholesome Advice, Interlarding It With Snatches of His Vernacular—Completely Exhausted When He Finishes.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PATERNON, N. J., April 9.—More than 5,000 persons heard Billy Sunday today in the Paterson tabernacle. In the afternoon he stirred his hearers with a dramatic face-to-face denunciation of the devil. In the evening, he addressed thousands of students from the high schools of Paterson and surrounding communities. At both meetings all of the 7,500 seats were occupied, and at the evening meeting the overflowed.

The day's collection amounted to $50,155, bringing the total amount for the six days to $4,737.52.

Boy and girl students who made up more than half of the vast congregation at Sunday's night meeting accepted his invitation to give samples of their school yells. The cheer leaders took the platform, and while Sunday applauded and laughed, directed a rapid fire of wise, witty and snappy remarks at the school children.

He was completely exhausted when he finished, standing on top of the pulpit itself, having completed a masterly oration in the form of a eulogy of Abraham Lincoln, that evoked thunderous applause.

"There is no excuse for any one of you being a mollycoddle, excess baggage, a false alarm, a mere chaffer," said Sunday. "A midget in mind and midget in morals is a carbuncle on the neck of the body politic."

"You can't look up to a runt in mind and a runt in character, unless you are married to it, and then you do it under protest. Go with people that are bigger than yourself morally and educationally. The devil has a teacher in every man who swears. Have a definite aim in life. If I had lived in Napoleon's day, I would have followed his star, for he could hit the ball."

"There are lots of people in these days who spar well, but they have not got the punch to produce the sleeper. John Jacob Astor, father of the millionaire, came to this country, made money, invested it in New York real estate and laid the foundation of his family's fortune, because he used his old noodle. The Astor family is one of the richest in the world."

"These are the kind of men who hang their mugs in the Hall of Fame," said Sunday, after running off a list of famous men, who had overcome obstacles by grit and perseverance.

"How did you learn to skate?" a boy was asked.

"By getting up every time I fell down," was his answer.

"Many men who have become great did not have the chance for enlightenment at the hands of everybody to-day. The newspaper to-day is a better college education than Abraham Lincoln had."

"Education is knowing what you want and knowing where to get it and knowing what to do with it after you get it."

"Don't be a slot machine for your employer to stick a salary into at night. You can tell when you are right just as easily as old Brigham Young and Old Solomon knew it."

"Have you got the Abraham Lincoln in you that knocked the shackles off 4,000,000 slaves while the mutts heeled. He like the fish. Make every fellow scratch when he gets close to you, but don't be contented. A contented man is like the stripes on a barber pole. Don't be a quitter. A quitter is a loser."

Sunday had been interrupted frequently by applause. He told a score of anecdotes to illustrate his points. When he finished his eulogy of Lincoln he received the greatest ovation that has been recorded here in Paterson.

"I guess I'll quit, boys," he exclaimed laughing and mopping his forehead. "I'm all in," and he drank long draughts from his water bottle.

CONTRADICTS PART OF VICE REPORT

The existence of a disorderly house at Morris and Cary Streets?

MATTER WAS MENTIONED IN CASUAL CONVERSATION

Captain McMahon replied that Detective Sergeant Kregel had mentioned one morning in casual conversation at detective headquarters, while the detectives were assembled to receive their morning assignments, that there was a woman living at that corner whom he suspected. When the name was called he recognized the woman as one who had been living for many years in that part of the city and who did not bear a good name. Kregel, however, mentioned the matter in the most casual way while the detectives were having their usual morning chat. Captain McMahon said Kregel had not made a complaint verbally, and if he made any mention of the case on the formal report, which the men of the detective force turn in each day, using a blank form, he could not remember having seen it.

"Kregel probably had no evidence upon which to pull the house," he said. "He knows, as every man of the detective force knows, that it is not necessary for him to complain to me. It is his duty to go ahead and pull any such place, if he has sufficient evidence to justify an arrest."

McMAHON SAYS KRENGEL IS ENERGETIC OFFICER

"No order is needed in such cases. If Kregel knew anything about that house, I would expect him to make his arrest, then tell me about it. If I knew that he had such knowledge and failed to make the arrest, I would consider it a case for the Police Board."

Responding to further inquiries, Captain McMahon said he had a force of six men, which was entirely too small for the city. Five of the detectives are kept at work from four to fifteen hours a day, another at night.

"Do you think your department is suffering from a lack of men?" Chairman Grundy asked.

"I do," replied McMahon. "Still the record of our Detective Department for arrests and convictions in criminal cases is second to none in this country. I have asked repeatedly for more men for the detective service, but we don't get them."

Councilman Rogers asked: "What is your opinion of Mr. Kregel?"

"He's a very energetic officer," replied McMahon.

"Is he reliable and truthful?" pursued Mr. Rogers.

"Well, I can say that I have not had

WHITE NAMED IN ANOTHER INDICTMENT FOR ROBBERY

Widely Known Elizabeth Citizen and Clubman Faces Other Charges.

NEW YORK, April 9.—Philip T. White, manager of the paint firm of John M. Masury, 350 N. 10th St., Brooklyn, indicted last month on a charge of attempted robbery in connection with an attempt to hold up and rob employees of the Sackett and Wilhelms Lithographing Company, of $2,500, August 7 last, is named in another indictment in connection with the robbery of $2,932 from employees of his own company on June 5 last. This was brought out to-day when three prisoners were arraigned in a Brooklyn court charged with robbery, grand larceny and assault based on the Masury holdings, in which messengers returning from a bank were robbed in a hallway of the plant. White, who is a widely known citizen of Elizabeth, N. J., and a member of clubs there and in Brooklyn, has been arrested in his home town, it was announced on the Masury case indictment. He had been out on bail of $10,000 on the previous indictment. His extradition will be asked.

The prisoners arraigned to-day were James F. Clinin, former accountant for the Sackett and Wilhelms Co.; Robert S. Roberts and Benjamin Stiller. All are held in $1,000 bail each. Clinin was tried recently on a charge of being one of the would-be robbers of Sackett and Wilhelms' employees and acquitted. He was indicted subsequently with White in connection with the Masury hold-up.

CASUALTY LIST GROWS

LONDON, April 9.—Another list of 1,105 casualties was issued to-day by the British War Office. It emphasizes the fierceness of the battle of Neuve Chapelle, in France, last month. The killed in this latest list number 336.

The British casualty list of to-day added to those issued yesterday and Wednesday, shows a total of 4,058 men killed, wounded or missing. Of these, 1,321 were killed.

MORE THAN 800,000 WAR PRISONERS IN GERMANY

AMSTERDAM, April 9.—A Berlin dispatch says that on April 1 $12,808 prisoners of war were held in Germany, 10,175 officers and 802,632 men. The dispatch gives the prisoners by nationality as follows:

French, 2,380 officers and 235,496 men; Russian, 5,110 officers and 210,000 men; Belgians, 647 officers and 25,620 men; British, 502 officers and 29,307 men.

MANY PROFESSIONS HIDDEN UNDER UNIFORMS OF SOLDIERS

DUNKIRK, FRANCE, April 9.—Under the uniform of the soldier various trades and professions are hidden, all of which prove useful in one way or another in camp or trench. The woodcutter of last year still goes on with his woodcutting, although now he chops wood for heating purposes at the front or for use in re-enforcing the trenches. Several infantrymen when not in the trenches spend their nights in the marshes fishing for eels. A fair night's catch is fifty, which sell for about 4 cents each.

Men who were mechanics before the war now employ their spare time manufacturing tinder boxes and other articles out of old cartridge cases. Soldiers obtain penknives, pencil cases, sealers, cigarette holders, and a variety of similar articles thus hammered out of cartridge cases.

Agricultural workers spend their spare time helping the farmers with whom they are billeted. Soldier-barbers do a roaring trade and find customers among the civilians as well as the military. Tailors and bootmakers also find many occasions to use their skill. Leather workers gather up odd pieces of leather from discarded harness or equipment and make it up into pocketbooks or cases for various articles. Soldiers with a fair education find plenty of work teaching French to the English soldiers, or vice versa. Some of the English soldiers number among their pupils several civilians, all of whom are eager to master the intricacies of English, and a fair proportion of these civilian pupils are of the fair sex.

The military authorities thus far have had no occasion to notice these little side employments, which are not exactly allowed by military rules. They prefer to close their eyes, however, as long as the work helps to keep the soldier busy and happy.

CHIEF TESTIFIES THAT WITSHIRE WAS SOBER

He then told again of the "eggman" incident, and bore testimony to the sober condition of Detective Sergeant Witshire on the night Kregel swore he was "drunk as a billed owl."

Captain Sowell recalled, and when questioned regarding the present abode of the woman who formerly lived in the segregated district, said they were scattered about the city. Some are keeping boarding houses, others have furnished rooms for rent. The police are watching all the suspected houses, and arrests are being made wherever and whenever evidence to justify the arrest can be obtained.

Attorney Smith asked to have filed with the committee a letter written by Mayor McCarthy to the Board of Police Commissioners on the occasion of his retirement from office as Mayor. In this letter the Mayor commends and praises the board and the officers of the Police Department.

WANTS CORRESPONDENCE WITH MINISTERIAL UNION

Councilman Rogers called for the correspondence between the Ministerial Association and the Police Board which has bearing upon the segregated district. It will be procured and filed.

Among other papers filed is the order of the Police Board establishing the segregated district.

Police Commissioner Thomas was called and sworn. He said Policeman Galbraith on one occasion came to him with a complaint. Attorneys for the commissioners objected. Galbraith was recalled. He said his complaint to the commissioner was about a private citizen, and the evidence of both was rejected under the rules of the investigation.

Commissioner Thomas said the members of the Police Board generally worked together in harmony, but at times there were differences of opinion on questions of policy.

OFFICIAL DENIAL OF REPORT CONCERNING AUSTRIA

ROME, April 10.—Official denial of the report that Austria has asked the good offices of the Holy See to obtain peace proposals is printed in the Osservatore Romano, the organ of the Vatican.

CONDUCTOR CLAYTON INJURED IN COLLISION

Ginter Park Cars Crash Together at Eighth and Franklin Streets.

PASSENGERS ARE UNINJURED

Heavy Steel Cars Run Into Rear of Lighter Car, Crushing Vestibule and Throwing Broken Glass in Every Direction.

W. L. Clayton, conductor on a Ginter Park car running extra in front of a regular car, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock, when the regular car ran into the rear of the extra at Eighth and Franklin Streets. The extra, a much smaller car, was standing just at the turn into Eighth Street, taking on passengers, when the larger car came up from behind and ran into it full tilt. The motorman of the regular did all he could. It was stated, to avoid the collision, but when he applied the brakes the wheels slipped and the big vehicle ran into the rear of the other.

Conductor Clayton was standing at the end of his car when the collision occurred, and it was he who bore the brunt of the shock and received most of the flying bits of broken glass. There were fifteen passengers on his car, but none was hurt, though all, for the moment, were excited. There were no passengers on the larger car.

Clayton was removed from the platform, and after preliminary examination on the spot, was removed to Grace Hospital. It was stated last night that one of his feet was badly mangled, that he was cut behind the right ear, and that his right thigh was seriously bruised. It was not thought that he was injured internally.

The extra car was badly damaged. The fender was broken and torn away and the windows were smashed. The larger car was only slightly damaged.

NO EXERCISE FOR THAW

Sheriff, Using His Discretion, Will Keep Prisoner in Tombs.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, April 9.—Abel I. Smith, of counsel for Harry K. Thaw, to-day obtained an order from Justice Ingraham, of the appellate division of the Supreme Court, giving Sheriff Griffenhagen discretion to allow Thaw to exercise outside the Tombs Prison, in company of a deputy.

The sheriff said to-night: "I do business only by order of the courts, and do not intend to take the initiative in this or any other matter. I will use my discretion, and allow Thaw to remain where he is."

DR. PARKHURST ACCUSED.
Charged With Conduct Unbecoming a Minister.

NEW YORK, April 9.—Charges of conduct unbecoming a minister against the Rev. Charles H. Parkhurst, D. D., of the Madison Square Presbyterian Church, will be placed before the Presbytery of New York at its meeting on Monday, it was stated to-night.

The Presbytery of Oakland, Cal., which makes the complaint, charges that Dr. Parkhurst aided the side of the "wets" in the prohibition campaign in California last fall, by declaring the State was not ready for prohibition.
